

Zion Canyon Farmers Market 2011 Performing Arts Participant

On behalf of the ZCFM, we wish to thank you for your involvement in making the ZCFM a holistic event. Your contribution and talents are greatly appreciated!

The following information, guidelines and policies are for those involved in performing at the Zion Canyon Farmers Market.

The ZCFM is located on the lawn of the Bit N Spur Restaurant located at: 1212 Zion Park Blvd, Springdale, Utah

Market hours are from 9am – 12:00pm

Your performance should begin close to 9am. Set up as early as 8:30am.

Your performance, with adequate breaks, should run through 11:30 – 12:00

Contact person upon arrival at the ZCFM is Lisa Zumpft.

A Power source and a power cord/power strip and a chair(s) will be provided. Musicians will set up and play in the shade of a tree. Musicians shall provide their own PA system.

Compensation for our performance this year will be based on:

- A $50.00 check from the Zion Canyon Farmers Market. Funding provided by the Zion Canyon Arts & Humanities Council (Z-Arts)
- Tips: placed in guitar case. Signage supports tipping.
- Donations received for CD's and other related merchandise. You may establish a donation price for these.
- Donations from local businesses and ZCFM vendors when available

We wish to track the Performing Artists experience by:

- letting you know how many patrons attended the ZCFM
- performance tip donations for informational purposes only
- your personal feedback and suggestions

This tracking information will help us with future bookings and will provide information for those interested in participating in the ZCFM performing arts series.

Any questions regarding the above information should be directed to:
